

Mprise Privacy policy

Mprise BV and its operating companies (hereinafter jointly referred to as Mprise) make every effort to ensure that your privacy is protected. This privacy policy tells you how Mprise uses and protects personal information that you share with Mprise via email and when you use this website, including how we use cookies.

When we ask you to provide information to which you can be identified, this information will only be used in accordance with this privacy policy.

If Mprise makes changes to this policy, this page will be updated accordingly.

Visitors of our website

When someone visits www.mprise.nl, we use third-party services to collect standard internet log information and details about behavior patterns of visitors. We do this to find information, such as the number of visitors to the site's pages. If we collect personally identifiable information through our website, we will clarify this and explain what we want to do with it.

On certain pages of this website we can ask for the following information:

- name and function
- contact details including telephone number and e-mail address

What we do with this information

We need certain information to understand your needs and improve the service we offer for the following reasons:

- Internal administration
- Enrollment in a training offered by Mprise
- With the help of the e-mail address you have provided, we can periodically send newsletters and promotional e-mails about new products or other information that we think is relevant and interesting to you. You can subscribe and unsubscribe yourself for newsletters.
- We may also contact you by e-mail, telephone or mail for market research purposes or because you have explicitly shown interest in our services or a job advertised on our website or for an open application.

Safety

We have set up suitable physical, electronic and managerial processes to protect and secure the information that we collect online.

We have made every effort to ensure that your information is safe, but no single communication method via internet or electronic storage method is 100% safe. Although we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute safety.

Links to other sites

This privacy policy applies, among other things, to information that is collected via the Mprise website. This website contains links to other sites that are not owned or managed by Mprise. Please note that we, Mprise, are not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. We therefore recommend that you read the privacy policy applicable there.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer or mobile phone by websites that you visit. They are often used to make websites work more efficiently, and to provide information to the website owner.

How Mprise uses cookies

Cookies on the Mprise website are used in different ways. If you refuse cookies, you can still use our site. Some of our business partners may use cookies on their sites. We do not have access to or control over these cookies.

i) Analysis

Mprise uses a range of third-party analysis tools to gather information about how people use our site. This helps us ensure that our site meets the needs of users and helps us to make improvements. Permanent cookies store information about which pages people visit; how long they are on the site; how they got there; and what they click on. Information provided by cookies helps Mprise analyse the profile of visitors to the site and allows us to make changes to improve their experience.

Mprise does not allow analysis companies to use or share their analysis data.

Cookies from third parties

Third-party cookies are not set up directly by Mprise, but by external service or functionality providers. Mprise uses a number of suppliers who place cookies on Mprise websites to provide the services they provide (e.g. website analysis).

In addition, the Mprise website contains built-in 'share' or 'like' buttons that allow users of the site to easily share interesting information with colleagues via social networks. These sites can set a cookie when you are also logged in to their service. Mprise has no control over the distribution of these cookies.

How do I change my cookie settings?

Most web browsers offer some control over cookies via the browser settings. If you want to know more about cookies, including how you can see which cookies are set and how you can manage and delete them, go to www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

If you wish to opt out of Google Analytics on all websites, please visit <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.
